VII. Renewals/Amendment Applications

A. Allied Health and Technology Institute

Allied Health and Technology Institute submitted to the Commission an application requesting license renewal to continue offering Home Health Aide (HHA), Nursing Assistant (NA) and converting Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) to Home Health Aide (HHA) bridge training programs in the District of Columbia.

The Commission voted to defer the decision on the license renewal application of Allied Health and Technology Institute and suspend the admissions of any new students beginning March 17, 2016.

The Commission voted to allow Allied 60 days to address application deficiencies and concerns around administration. The Commission requested the submission of seven (7) binders of a full and complete license renewal application, which demonstrates compliance with all the standards of licensure for a post-secondary non-degree institution.

B. General Assembly

General Assembly submitted to the Commission an application requesting renewal and amendment of its educational license and a request to waive the submission of the audited financial statement. The amendment request is to add the following six (6) new programs to the existing offerings, Android Development Immersive, Data Science Immersive, Digital Marketing Circuit, JavaScript Development, Web Development Immersive Remote (Online), and User Experience Design Circuit (Online).

The Commission voted to approve the license renewal and the license amendment for a period of one (1) year not to exceed March 31, 2017 with the following conditions: (1) submit a renewed surety bond certificate and (2) corrections to the school catalog.

The Commission voted to deny the waiver request of the submission of a financial audit and requested that a 2015 financial audit be submitted by May 2, 2016.

C. Saint Michael School of Allied Health

Saint Michael School of Allied Health submitted to the Commission an application requesting license renewal to continue offering 1) Practical Nursing; 2) Medical Assistant; 3) Medical Insurance Billing & Coding; 4) Pharmacy Technician; 5) Computer Networking Technology; and 6) Dental Assistant.

It was noted that the institution representative submitted to the Commission this morning the 2015 audited financial statement and the independent auditor's report. The Commission voted to defer the decision on the license renewal application until the next public session, May 5, 2016. In addition, the Commission requested the submission of the following information by April 7, 2016: (1) National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) pass rates for the following years: 2013, 2014 and 2015 which should include the pass rate for each quarter of the aforementioned years; (2) documentation from the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) of the institution's current status; (3) the number of students that did not pass the exit examination for each cohort 2013, 2014 and 2015; (4) a corrected organizational chart; and (5) an updated catalog and student handbook. The application should be submitted to the HELC office no later than April 11, 2016, with the status of the Department of Education, updated faculty resumes and the application status with the DC BON.

D. Vets Groups Training Academy

The Veterans Enterprise Training & Services (VETS) Group Training Academy submitted to the Commission an application requesting renewal and amendment of its educational license and a request for waiver of submitting the audited financial statement. The amendment request is to add sixteen (16) new programs to the existing offerings.

The Commission voted to approve the license renewal for a period of one (1) year not to exceed March 31, 2017 with the condition of submitting a 2015 financial audit by May 31, 2016.

The Commission voted to deny the waiver request of submitting a financial audit and to defer action of the license amendment request to begin offering sixteen (16) new programs, until the 2015 audited financial statement to determine financial solvency.

VIII. Provisional Conditional Exemption Requests

A. Bellevue University

Bellevue University submitted to the Commission an application for Conditional Exemption as education provider outside of the District of Columbia to offer clinical and or internships in the District of Columbia.

The Commission voted to approve the Conditional Exemption application to offer 5 of the 6 requested clinical and or internship programs for academic credit in the District of Columbia for a period of one (1) year not to exceed March 31, 2017; under the provisions of D.C. Official Code 38-1310(f) for education provided as a local offering of a foreign institution.

The Commission did not approve the Bachelor of Science in nursing program since it is not an accredited program by a national nursing accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. The DC Board of Nursing requires national nursing accreditation according to their Distance Nursing Education regulations of Chapter 56, Nursing Schools and Programs, of Title 17 DCMR § 5611.6 (b).

No action is required at this time by the Commission.

XI. Status Hearing

A. Technical Learning Center (now Prospect Career College)

The Commission heard case no. 2016-0001 of Prospect Career College formerly Technical Learning Centers, Inc.

The institution is currently being charged with the following violations. 1) DC Official Code 38-1309(c) Technical Learning Centers selling, bartering, or exchanging for any consideration or attempting to sale, barter, or exchange for any consideration a degree, diploma, or certificate; and 2) DCMR 5-A8018.1 (g), Technical Learning Center failed to provide transportation reimbursement as advertised.

The Commission required the institution to provide the following information:

- documentation that high school diploma program ceased through public advertisement and updates to the website;
- list of students who have completed the program
- list of students who have not received the diploma
- evidence of Parkridge High School legal ability to issue High School diplomas to District residents;
- institutions plant to distribute diplomas either via mail or pick-up by students at no charge; and
- revised catalog detailing late policy and transportation reimbursements.

The Commission accepted the recommendation of Counsel to convert the show-cause hearing on April 7, 2016 to a status hearing, at which time decision will be rendered.

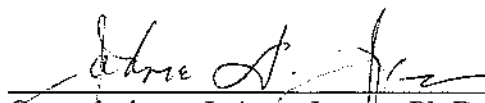

XII. Public Comments

No public comments.

XIII. Adjournment
